

Never weather beaten sail

SSATB Chorus

English Text*

C. Hubert H. Parry (1848-1918)

Words: Thomas Campian (1567-1620)

Engraved by Cecil Rigby

Proofed by Janet Crang

$\bullet = 100$

p dim.

Soprano I
Ne - ver wea - ther bea - ten sail more wil - ling bent to shore, Ne-ver

Soprano II
Ne - ver wea - ther bea - ten sail more wil - - - - ling bent to shore, Ne-ver

Alto
Ne - ver wea - ther bea - ten sail mor wil - ling bent to shore, Ne-ver

Tenor
Ne - ver wea - ther bea - ten sail more wil - ling bent to shore, Ne-ver

Bass
Ne - ver wea - ther bea - ten sail more wil - ling bent to shore, Ne-ver

espress. p

S I
tir - - ed pil - grim's limbs af - fect - ed slum - ber more. Than my

S II
tir - - ed pil - - - - grim's limbs af - fect - ed slum - ber more. Than my wear - - - - ied tir - - ed pil - grim's limbs af - fect - ed slum - ber more.

A

T
tir - ed pil - grim's limbs af - fect - ed slum - ber more. Than my wear - - - -

B
tir - - ed pil - grim's limbs af - fect - ed slum - ber more.

* In this work Parry is paying tribute to Thomas Campian's original words — and also to the lovely madrigal of the same name (also to be found on Handlo's list).