

Lord, for thy tender mercy's sake

With accompaniment for practice

Richard Farrant* (?-1581)

Engraved by Francis Markey

Soprano
 Lord, for thy ten - der mer - cy's sake, lay not our sins to our charge, but for -

Alto
 Lord, for thy ten - der mer - cy's sake, lay not our sins to our charge, but for -

Tenor
 Lord, for thy ten - der mer - cy's sake, lay not our sins to our charge, but for -

Bass
 Lord, for thy ten - der mer - cy's sake, lay not our sins to our charge, but for -

S
 give that is past and give us grace to a - mend our sin - ful lives, to de - cline from

A
 give that is past and give us grace to a - mend our sin - ful lives, to de - cline from

T
 give that is past and give us grace to a - mend our sin - ful lives, to de - cline from

B
 give that is past and give us grace to a - mend our sin - ful lives, to de - cline from

*The authorship is uncertain: this anthem may have been composed by John Hilton or Christopher Tye.